Visit Skokloster Castle – one of the best-preserved Baroque Palaces in the World

Welcome to Skokloster Castle – once the home of Carl Gustav Wrangel, renowned field marshal of the 30-years war.

Skokloster castle is one of the world's best preserved baroque palaces, with intact interiors from three centuries and vast collections of weapons, art and more. Its most sought-after possession is the painting Vertumnus by the 16th century Italian artist Giuseppe Arcimboldo. The castle is situated by the lake Mälaren in Håbo, about an hour's drive from central Stockholm.

Embark on an exciting journey back to the 17th century.
