Amendments to the Voucher

Should changes be made at short notice, for example to the number of visitors in the group, these needs to be made directly in the original voucher and signed by the group leader.

On arrival at the museum

A printed voucher must be shown at the entrance or in the museum shop and include the correct number of visitors in the group.

Terms of payment

Invoicing occurs after your visit, to ensure that the correct number of visitors will be charged. Skokloster Castle cannot attach original vouchers or include voucher copies with the invoice.

Groups with fewer than 10 people do not need to notify us in advance to pay with a voucher. However, if you're not already a registered customer, the voucher must still be approved beforehand.

Invoicing occurs monthly. Payments are required within 30 days of the invoice date. If payment is late or missing, the museum may refuse future visits with vouchers and instead require cash payment at the entrance.

Interest and reminder fee

Interest on delayed payments and reminder fee will be charged in accordance with Swedish law.
